

Empowering Through Entrepreneurship

Launch It is a group of charities with the same mission: to change lives through enterprise. We provide affordable workspace, training and mentoring for 18-30 year olds.

We set up our first enterprise hub in Deptford, London in 2000, and have since expanded across London and helped to establish 'sister' charities across the UK.

There is a great need for what we do. In the UK, where you come from and what your parents do for a living determines the opportunities that are available to you in life, from education, work experience and career aspirations through to hobbies and interests.

As a result, young people from poorer backgrounds are more likely to find themselves unemployed or stuck in low-skill, low-wage, insecure jobs.

This leads to a sense of disillusionment, a lack of purpose and poor mental health and has been made worse by the pandemic and the cost of living crisis.

And when talented individuals are prevented from reaching their full potential, this has a knock on effect on society, with a less productive workforce, lower levels of innovation, and ultimately slower economic growth.

Launch It harnesses this talent, helping young people to develop skills and make valuable connections through entrepreneurship. This leads to a boost in confidence, the ability to create wealth and improves social status.

Most importantly, it changes the way young people way they see themselves.

Mary Outumahana is a music artist & Launch It alumna who founded The RecShop, a charitable organisation breaking down barriers of entry into the music industry for young people, which has now grown into a multi-awarded thriving organisation.

The programme is a unique opportunity for young people from all backgrounds to explore their passions and develop their entrepreneurial skills in a supportive and collaborative environment. They are able to get the support they need to overcome the many obstacles they often face, helping to level the playing field but also creating a more inclusive and diverse business community.

We are looking for partners to collaborate on this exciting opportunity. Working with Launch It can help your company make the social commitments that fulfil your purpose and build your reputation as a socially responsible company – in ways that matter to you, your customers and your employees.

"Before joining the Launch It programme, I was experiencing a difficult time in my life. I faced some personal and health issues when I moved to the UK and this had a knock on effect on my confidence.

My business, Tetra Artsy Design specializes in bringing people's ideas and words to life through engaging and charming illustrations. I wanted to start this business because of my love for illustrations but it was difficult to get going because I didn't have the confidence and I had no idea how to start a business or explain to people around what exactly my services are.

Being a self-taught artist, I frequently questioned my skills and was hesitant to share my work with others. Launch It Labs has given me confidence to believe in my work and taught me how to create diverse revenue streams for my business.

It has been a life changing programme for me. Having a mentor to guide and support me has helped me overcome business related challenges as well as personal ones. Because of my mentor, I have really gained confidence and I am coping better with life.

The future is bright for Tetra Artsy Design because I now have a vast amount of knowledge which I can use to grow my business."
